3. SEARCH AN ENTITY OR INDIVIDUAL

Select Search from the main menu to display the text box in which you can either search the Orbis database for a company, or search the WorldCompliance database for an individual.

With advanced search, multiple search criteria can be added to reduce the amount of matching results.

If the entity or individual is not included in the database, this counterparty can be added via 'create a new entity' (only for your own usage). The main advantage of this functionality is the automatic monitoring of your third party, including their directors and their beneficial owners.

When you click on an item in the list of matching results you can run an analysis of that company against the general pre-defined model (this is a model adapted to the needs of the diamond sector), which includes multiple compliance processes to generate a score and rating for the company, indicating its suitability for onboarding as one of your counterparties.

4. ANALYSIS RESULTS

4.1 OVERVIEW

When all the KYC-questions are answered and an analysis of the company has been made, the results are presented in an Overview page, which includes a colour-coded description of the company's compliance rating that was calculated by the combination of processes.

The Overview page also includes links to drill down into the details of each process that was applied to generate the rating. For example, you may view a process that checked the subject company’s directors for PEP status and presence on the WorldCompliance database. In the example below, there is one potential match for the first director. By clicking on this indicator, you will get the potential matches that can be accepted or rejected, based on the detailed descriptions and source links you get.

4.2 FUNCTIONALITIES WITHIN A PROCESS

First of all, after review of a process, a recalculation will be necessary. Click 'recalculate'.

If you have additional information or documents, these can be added to the process. As well as additional directors, beneficial owners and shareholders or subsidiaries. This results in an automatic monitoring of own added data.

The own added data will not be available for other users.

Finally, ratings can be adjusted manually.

4.3 PROCESSES

The process pages indicate the impact the relevant process had in generating the subject's risk rating. Typically, they also include further links to view the Orbis report on an individual or organization, to browse the internet for further details about them, or a further pop-up dialog enabling you to view and evaluate the proposed matches against WorldCompliance data:

The decision model includes the following processes:

- Client type : This process determines whether the subject (or its GUO) is listed on a recognised stock exchange, and also whether the subject (or GUO) is regulated.
- Sector : This process gives the first available NACE code with 4 digits.
- Kimberley Process : This process indicates if the counterparty is located in a country that does/does not satisfy the minimum requirements of the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme.
- FATF and EU high risk countries: This process indicates if the counterparty is situated in a high risk and non-cooperative jurisdiction.
- Directors : This process determines which entities on the Orbis Contacts database are key staff of the subject company, and are potentially matched to WorldCompliance risk records.
- Beneficial owners : This process determines which entities on the Orbis Ownership database have a controlling interest in the subject company.
- Controlling shareholders : This process determines if a controlling shareholder is potentially matched to WorldCompliance risk records.
- Corporate group risk : This process evaluates the level of risk represented by members of the subject company's corporate group.
- News : This process searches for news articles in which the subject company (or a linked entity) is mentioned in the context of negative content.
- Q1-Q5 : These processes give a risk score and rating according to the responses of the KYC input Form.

6. MONITORING, ALERTS AND AUDIT TRAIL

6.1 MONITORING

For authorised users, the Monitoring page displays details for an engagement, which depend on how monitoring has been configured. In various categories of information, an alert will be raised when information on either the WorldCompliance database or the Orbis database is updated, and the frequency of alerting depends on the frequency of those database updates.

Monitoring can be activated for pending engagements. First collapse the engagement, accordingly the option 'accept engagement and start monitoring' appears.
