

Stock Manager

WE ARE

We're creating a new kind of fine jewelry.

While others compromise on either quality or value, we deliver both. Our customers seek enduring pieces that match luxury brands in craftsmanship and excellence, yet offer true value. That's why we combine exceptional materials and skilled artistry with contemporary storytelling and honest pricing - creating an elevated experience without the traditional luxury markup.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

We are looking for a highly organized, hands-on, Stock Manager to oversee the daily management of our inventory and all its related operational flows. This is a key role within our operations team, ensuring accurate stock control, smooth product movements, quality checks, and strong coordination between departments. You don't necessarily need years of experience - what matters most is very strong computer literacy, a fast-learning mindset, and a genuine excitement for building smart, efficient systems in a growing company.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Own and manage inventory across all locations, ensuring accuracy and real-time visibility
- Monitor and control stock movements (inbound, outbound, transfers, returns)
- Maintain accurate stock levels through regular cycle counts and reconciliations
- Coordinate with production, warehouse teams to ensure smooth product flow
- Identify and resolve stock discrepancies, implementing corrective actions where needed
- Optimize inventory processes and systems to improve efficiency and reduce errors
- Maintain clear and structured inventory documentation and reporting
- Manage priorities and deadlines in a fast-paced, evolving environment

WHO YOU ARE

- Passionate about contributing to a growing startup and making a difference
- Detail-oriented, proactive, and eager to take ownership
- Highly organized and structured
- Computer savvy (Google Workspace, Excel, tools, ERP systems etc.)
- Quick learner with a problem-solving mindset
- Comfortable multitasking and a clear sense of priorities
- Fluent in English, both written and spoken
- Based in Antwerp, Belgium

WHAT WE ARE OFFERING

- A unique opportunity to join the founding team of a fast-growing brand
- A diverse and hands-on role with real ownership and responsibility
- Plenty of room for personal and professional growth
- A chance to help shape the operational backbone of a new kind of fine jewelry company

Interested? Get in touch
hr@idyl.com